

CLE EVENT: February 2009 Seminar

- Date: Thursday, 26 February
- Time: 7:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m. (presentation starts at 7.45 pm)
- Topic: " The Attorney-Client Privilege: What Every In-House Lawyer Should Know "

Morrison & Foerster hosted a free seminar on the attorney-client privilege and how it applies to in-house lawyers. The presentation was led by Daniel P. Levison, a partner in the Litigation Department of Morrison & Foerster's Tokyo office, assisted by Aramide O. Fields, an Associate in the same department and office.

Attendees were provided with an introduction to the basic principles of the attorney-client privilege and work product doctrine, with an emphasis on the application of those principles to issues facing in-house legal counsel.

Location: Morrison & Foerster LLP
Shin-Marunouchi Building, 29th Floor
5-1, Marunouchi 1-chome
Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo 100-6529
For a map, go to
<http://www.mofo.com/docs/pdf/TokyoOfficeMap.pdf>

Other: This event was provided free of charge to JICN members

CLE Credit: Approved for California and New York.